Deceased Upon the call of the name of P. B. McCullin during roll call, H. L. Johns, presiding elder, announced that a message had just been received telling of the death of P. B. McCullin, and his name was referred to the Committee on Memoirs.

Brethren in Hospitals The Conference was informed that John F. Foster and L. E. Crooks were very ill in Shreveport hospitals.

Boards, Etc. H. L. Johns, secretary of the cabinet, read the nominations of the presiding elders for the quadrennial boards, commissions and committees: also for the annual committees, and they were elected. Later James E. Selfe stated that the Discipline provides for five clerical members and six lay members to compose the Commission on Budget, while one of each kind had been elected from each district. Upon motion, the vote electing members of the commission was reconsidered. The Bishop called the presiding elders about him; they consulted together and made nominations for the required number on the commission and they were elected. See Boards, etc.

Order of Day Thursday H. L. Johns also read the following recommendations: We recommend that the order of the day for the Thursday morning session of the Conference be as follows—10 a. m., reception by Bishop A. Frank Smith of the class into full connection; to be followed by the first ballot for clerical and lay delegates to the Uniting Conference; to be followed by the annual address of the Conference Lay Leader. The recommendation was adopted. Objection was made that it would hardly be possible to receive the class into full connection at 10 a. m. Thursday as the committee of examination and the Committee on Admissions had not had the opportunity of meeting. The vote on the whole report of the presiding elders was reconsidered. Then the motion prevailed that the vote on the nominations and the recommendation be taken separately. The vote was taken as ordered, those nominated as members of the several boards were elected, and the recommendation as to the order of the day on Thursday was adopted. Upon suggestion of the Bishop, the Committee on Admissions was called to meet immediately upon adjournment and the committee of examination at 8:30 a. m. Thursday.

Reports of Presiding Elders—Character Question 22 was called: Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? The names were called of R. H. Harper, J. Henry Bowdon, B. H. Andrews, Elmer C. Gunn, H. L. Johns, presiding elders, and their character passed. Each reported that the names of the preachers in their districts had been called and that there was nothing against them. Their character passed. Each presiding elder reported the work in his district.

Bishop Dobbs The Bishop informed the Conference that Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs, required to spend a long period in a hospital, was making progress toward recovery of his health. The Secretary was instructed to send a message of greeting and love to Bishop Dobbs. He was also instructed to send a message of sympathy to Mrs. P. B. McCullin.

Aid Given Brother Lahey R. H. Harper, P. E., reported that Mr. S. D. Marler, acting as treasurer, had received $240.00 in answer to the appeal for aid sent out in behalf of Rev. C. Roger Lahey in his long and serious illness.

To Receive Finance Funds Upon motion of A. M. Serex, Sidney A Seegers (in the absence of John F. Foster because of illness) was named to receive funds due the Board of Finance.

Reports of Presiding Elders—Character The call of Question 22 not having been completed because of a suggestion that the Conference should adjourn early in order that members and delegates might reach their several places of entertainment throughout the city at an early hour, the time was extended to hear the reports of A. M. Serex and of Louis Hoffpauir. The character of each was passed and each reported his work. Each reported that the names of the preachers in his district had been called and that there was nothing against them. Their character passed.

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING CONFERENCE CENTENNIAL

Whereas, the Louisiana Annual Conference will complete a century of service in 1946, and, whereas, it will be a fitting thing to celebrate the centennial in a way that will be of inspirational and practical value;

Resolved, that this session, while not able to determine the acts of any later session of the Conference, go on record as expressing the fitness and desirability of meeting in the autumn of 1946 in Opelousas, Louisiana, where the first session of the Louisiana Conference was held, January, 1847, and that the session include centennial features that will fittingly celebrate our hundred years of history, and give an impetus to present and future achievement;

Further, that we recognize the desirability of using such a plan to strengthen the work of the Mother Church of Louisiana Methodism, in Opelousas, and that we approve of the proposed plan to erect in Opelousas a new house of worship that will give our century-old Methodism there a more commanding position in the town, provide more adequate facilities for the work of the congregation, and ample accommodations for the session of a growing Conference;

Further, that we encourage the congregation in Opelousas to undertake the enterprise, with recommendations to any future session of the Louisiana Conference that some plan be devised to assist in completing the enterprise so that a great new church in Opelousas shall be the united achievement of the local congregation and all Louisiana Methodism.

Thanks H. W. Rickey read the report of the Committee on Courtesies and it was unanimously adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COURTESIES

The refreshing springs of life flow from the homes of hospitality. The Rayne Memorial Church, assisted by the New Orleans group of churches, has dispensed a type of entertainment warmly human, pleasantly colorful, beautifully interpretative of the Spirit of life in the historic old city of the deep South.

This last, oldest, and best of ninety-three Annual Conferences, because of wise counsels, ripe scholarship, unusual liberality, and excellent reports concerning a large program of varied church activities, has brought help, light, and encouragement to members and visitors.

It casts a spell over us that never shall we meet again in the charming comradeship of the Louisiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

All honor, therefore, to New Orleans Methodism for the large part she has played in enabling us to enter into the larger life unashamed and unafraid, of an undivided Methodism.

We, therefore, vote our grateful recognition to any and all who have taken any part whatsoever in taking care of the many needs of this many-sided Conference and its forward-looking activities, including florists of the city who have remembered the Conference with flowers—Metairie Ridge Nursery, Henry Kraak, and Scheinuk.

H. W. RICKEY

APPENDIX

REPORT OF BIBLE BOARD

The Bible is the Eternal Word of GOD. Its authority should be emphasized throughout the Church. The Scriptures are now available in 1008 languages and dialects, according to reports of the American Bible Society. In appreciation of the Society's work, we present the following:

WHEREAS, the American Bible Society is a missionary agency continually aiding the churches in extending the Kingdom of God, both in the United States and in many mission fields throughout the world, by translating, publishing and distributing the Holy Bible, be it resolved:

First: That this body records its satisfaction in the continuing missionary work of the American Bible Society in its efforts to increase the circulation of the Bible;

Second: That our pastors be encouraged to observe Universal Bible Sunday on Sunday, December 11, calling the attention of their congregations to the fact that the Scriptures have so wide a circulation in so many languages, urging upon their people a more faithful use of the Bible and a more continuous study of GOD'S HOLY WORD.

R. H. STAPLES, Chairman.

ASHLEY T. LAW, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Report Number One

In our Report Number One, addressed to you in the 1937 session, we requested authority to ask the Board of Trustees of Centenary College for the appointment of a minimum of three members from that body to co-operate with the Executive Committee of this Board in drafting plans for the liquidation of our bonded indebtedness.

Also in this report we recommended an adjourned session of the Conference at a convenient time to consider and to act upon the report of this joint committee and also to consider and act upon the Committee on Revision of the Charter of Centenary College. All this you granted.

The Joint Committee met as per schedule. To this committee Mr. T. L. James submitted a plan for the adjustment and liquidation of our bonded debt, the particulars of which were about as follows:

Total indebtedness, $283,500.00. This amount was to be retired by discounts from the banks, acceptances by the Centenary College Endowment Fund, special large gifts by individuals, and the balance to be raised by pastors and churches in a campaign to be conducted within a given period of time, no donor being obligated to pay unless total amount was pledged. In this campaign pastors drawing salaries above a certain figure were asked, if possible, to contribute a month's salary. This plan was approved by the Joint Committee.

ADJOURNED SESSION OF CONFERENCE

Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs called the adjourned session of the Conference for Alexandria, March 10, for the purposes mentioned in the request of the Board of Christian Education.

The Committee on Revision of Charter of Centenary College not being prepared for report, asked more time. This was granted.

Immediately after the adjourned session of the Conference this committee reassumed its investigations and soon completed its work, bringing the charter of the College up to date and harmonizing it with the requirements of the General Board of Christian Education and with the desires of our Annual Conference. Chief features of the charter revision are as follows:

First Amendment: Provision is made that all members elected to the Board of Trustees of Centenary College shall be confirmed by the Louisiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of by its legal successor, at the next meeting of said Annual Conference after the election of said members of the Board.

Second Amendment: This provision limits the number of Trustees to twenty-five, including the president of the institution. Terms of the Board Members are to be overlapping with eight new members to be elected each year. Members are subject to re-election if desired.

Third Amendment: This amendment removes the limit on the amount of property that the corporation may own and hold.

The domicile of the corporation was fixed at Shreveport.

The plan for the liquidation of the indebtedness being the matter of chief concern, Mr. T. L. James was called to the floor of the Conference and asked to present the plan. This he did with painstaking thoroughness, giving ample time for questions and answers. A period of discussion followed for which adequate time was given for making the plan unmistakably clear. Upon motion the plan was unanimously adopted. And, upon nomination, Mr. T. L. James was unanimously elected as Director of the campaign.

The campaign, the story of which now makes an illustrious page in the history of our Conference, was duly and vigorously conducted within the time set for same, the general results of which are as follows:

Centenary College Endowment Fund	$150,000.00
Discounts of Banks	61,370.00
Board of Christian Education	10,000.00
By Churches and Individuals	69,259.48
Total	$290,629.48

This, as will be noted, leaves a cash balance of $7,129.48. This amount is to be used, when sufficient additional funds have been raised or given, for the erection of a building on the campus of the College.

On June 1, 1938, all the outstanding bonds of the Conference Education Bond Issue were retired. New bonds in the amount of $150,000, with an interest rate of three per cent per annum, were issued as authorized by the adjourned session of the Annual Conference, March 10, 1938, which were taken by the Centenary College Endowment Fund.

The $150,000 taken by Centenary College Endowment Fund is to be retired in annual payments from funds allotted to this purpose by the Annual Conference.

During the campaign it was proposed, if the bond issue debt were successfully met, that the cancelled bonds be burned at the 1938 session of our Conference. We suggest that this is the appropriate time for such a ceremony.

We wish to express our thanks to Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs for his generous share in promotion of the settlement of this debt and to all who, in any manner, had a part in making the achievement possible.

We commend most heartily the leadership of Mr. T. L. James, Director of the campaign, who gave continuously and unsparingly of both his time and money in bringing the campaign to a successful consummation. Hereby we offer our hearty thanks for his unselfish and sacrificial service to our Conference, to our College, and to the cause of Christian Education.

W. W. HOLMES, Chairman

D. B. RAULINS, Secretary

THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Report Number Two

We have had before us the report of the General Secretary of the General Board of Christian Education, along with reports from Seashore Methodist Assembly, Mount Sequoyah, Centenary College, the Executive-Extension Secretary and others. These, with discussions accompanying them, have informed and directed our work. We note with deep gratification both the deepening and the expansion of interest in Christian Education. We report as the major achievement of the year for our Conference the adjustment and liquidation of the bonded indebtedness that has been carried for more than a decade.

CENTENARY COLLEGE

The report of the President of Centenary College is most encouraging, recording the largest enrollment in the long history of the institution, with many other indications of steady advancement.

THE LOCAL CHURCH

The work in the local churches has enjoyed commendable advancement, with larger enrollments in the church schools and extended interest in better training for leadership in these schools.

We heartily commend the work of our Executive-Extension Sectary and the excellent service rendered our Conference by the staff of volunteer and unpaid staff and the large army of men and women, who, from Sunday to Sunday and on week days, engage in the noble work of teaching our people the ways of God.

Recommendations

We recommend and urge your support of and cooperation with the following:

The Youth Crusade which is a major feature of this quadrennium; Southern Methodist University as the great institution for Methodism in this regional jurisdiction; Centenary College as our own institution and increasingly worthy of assistance; The Western Methodist Assembly at Mount Sequoyah; The Pastors' School at Shreveport; The Young People's assemblies and camps; The observance of the following special days: College Day, January 8; Young People's Day, March 5; Church School Day, April 30; Fourth Sunday Missionary days; World Temperance Sunday and Prohibition, and World Bible Day.

We recommend that our church school workers read at least one book this year dealing with the work they are doing in the church school. We urge that both our pastors and people utilize the facilities of the extension library services of Southern Methodist University and Centenary College.

Note:

Centenary College Endowment Fund turned in $56,000. cash and $94,000. of our old Education Bonds, a total of $150.000. for which they received $150,000. in new 3% bonds, interest and principal of which will be paid out of the regular amount allotted to the Bond Fund.

At the beginning of the campaign there was outstanding $283,500. of the old Education Bond Issue, all of which were retired and now we have only the $150,000. of new 3% bonds outstanding. The old bonds were retired as follows:

Cash paid to bond holders	$128,130.00
Discount given by bond holders	61,370.00
Bonds from Centenary College Endowment Fund	94,000.00
Total	$283,500.00

However, in addition to the Education Bonds there is now outstanding $10,700.00 of the 6% Annuity Bonds, but interest on $3,500.00 of these has been waived by the owners for the past several years. These Bonds were authorized and guaranteed by the Annual Conference in 1929.

REPORT

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

The development of our spiritual resources is largely the fruitage of selecting vital, robust literature that awakens and guides spiritual life. Mr. Wesley gave the printing press a place of honor beside the pulpit and the prayer life. A reading people becomes a leading people. The strength of a denomination is exhibited by the quality of literature its Publishing House turns out.

Our Publishing House has had a year of unprecedented prosperity and has made an invaluable contribution to the program of our entire connection.

Dr. King and his array of contributors is giving us a general organ that is adapted to the quickening drum beats of our forward marching Methodism.

Dr. Duren is seeking to make the New Orleans Christian Advocate an indispensable helper to every pastoral charge, and his well-thought-out plans are set to enable the paper to pay its own freight and not be a charge as an orphan of the Benevolent collections.

The church school literature has a tremendous task in leadership training and mobilizing a host to keep step with the new order of Methodism heading in for big things done in a large way.

"The Upper Room" has helped many to steer into a daily devotional life current, and has enriched the inner life of a rapidly growing clientele.

The Committee is of the opinion that if we are to publish glad tidings in these vital days we must keep a streamline of the best literature pouring like waters of healing into our Methodist homes and churches.

We request Bishop Smith to appoint the Rev. Dr. W. L. Duren Editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate and the Rev. Dr. H. T. Carley as Associate Editor, who serves without pay.

We feel that in the new departure of calling in the Rev. Mr. C. E. Downer as Field Promotional Representative in our three patronizing Conference that they have taken a step that has a good hope of an increase in the resources and income of our Advocate.

We ask the Conference to elect Mr. J. W. Reily, the Rev. H. L. Johns, and the Rev. Louis Hoffpauir as the Louisiana Conference members of the Publishing Committee for the Advocate.

REPORT No. 1—BOARD OF FINANCE

We request Bishop A. Frank Smith to appoint Rev. John F. Foster, D. D., Conference Director of Superannuate Endowment Fund for the ensuing year, and further request Dr. Foster to serve.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT

Whereas, There remains an unpaid balance on the adjusted quotas of the Superannuate Endowment pledges in the churches of this Conference to the amount of $37,423.94, and

Whereas, The Unification of the three major Methodist Churches in America will be consummated next year,

Therefore, We request and urge all congregations having unpaid adjusted quotas on the Superannuate Endowment Fund to make a supreme effort to liquidate these pledged quotas during the year 1939.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING A SPECIAL CHRISTMAS OFFERING

Whereas, It appears that there will be a 10% increase in the number of Claimants upon the Conference, and

Whereas, With increasing age, and a greater degree of infirmity the needs are proportionately increased, and

Whereas, The funds for distribution to the Claimants upon this Conference are insufficient to meet the needs of these dependent upon the Conference,

Therefore, Be is resolved: That the Louisiana Conference request each Methodist congregation in the Conference to make a special Christmas thank offering for the benefit of the Claimants on, or before, Dec. 11, 1938, and that the offering be sent to Mr. A. M. Mayo, Treasurer, Lake Charles, La., who is requested to divide the total offering equally among the Claimants before Christmas.

REPORT No. 1—BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Your Board of Lay Activities begs to submit this, its report on the general activities of the Church.

We feel it would serve no useful purpose to review the general state of the Church. Its growth in membership, material factors and similar data can be found and studied in our various statistical reports.

There are other matters which we feel need our attention and to which we ask leave to direct your thoughts. All will agree that we need to keep in close touch with our young people. They are the growing portion of our Church. New ideas and language to express them are being passed upon by our young people with kaleidoscopic rapidity. We need to keep step with them if we are to continue to to speak the same language and to be able to see the same objectives. We doubt if we are doing so.

In our Church schools there would seem to be a growing emphasis upon adult membership, and classes, organized committees and membership, and lack of interest by the younger people. The general assembly of the school is somewhat outmoded. We think our Church school program should be built more about our children and young people and that we emphasize to them by our action that we really consider them important factors in God's kingdom. We think a general assembly should be encouraged so that the children will receive the inspiration which comes from being part of a great body, and will have ocular demonstration of the interest by others.

We likewise fear that too much emphasis is being placed in our Church worship upon special days and programs. Granting that benefit may accrue from the emphasis of discussing at a set time some meritorious subject—yet it is easily seen that such emphasis is proportionately lessened as the occasions are multiplied, while at the same time the opportunity to preach the gospel is proportionately lost. Support of politico-economic or social programs, to our mind, should be avoided by our Church, since such programs necessarily propose to accomplish their end by governmental regulations. Such a program implies a mixing of Church and State and is inherently contrary to our cardinal principle of their separation. To undertake as a Church to sponsor such political movements means ultimately our surrender as a Church to the doctrine that political forces have the right to regulate us in our Church government and regiment us in our religious thoughts and worship of God.

Men who live by the golden rule and pattern their lives upon Jesus Christ need no social program to guide them. Men who have been soundly converted can not stand idle in the vineyard of life but must be busy about the Master's business of relieving distress and suffering. Methodism in its early days carried a ringing message of hope and cheer to poverty-stricken people. But the message was one of their individual value and responsibility to God—not the substitution of material for spiritual things. Methodism today, without loss of the force of this message, and because of its own power and affluence, needs to emphasize somewhat more strongly the responsibility of the individual, to remind our people that the souls of all men are of equal value, and that we must individually live and act like the Master, not turn over our religion to the action of some third person for us.

Where the members of a church have this standard and conduct as individuals, political questions and all implications thereof are properly solved by them.

We are also concerned with the tendency to increase the size and power of our various Boards: with the inauguration of various new movements and the constitution of new and costly forces or bureaus to operate them. Such bodies with their overlapping terms and large personnel may easily become so self-centered and specialized as to look at the Church only through their own eyes. Their points of view may easily render them non-cooperative or even hostile to other interests of the Church. Their overlapping terms and large influence tend to eliminate them from any effective control by our General Conference and also to destroy the efficacy of our Episcopal leadership. We hold no brief for Episcopal dictatorship, but we definitely believe that a Church controlled by Boards and Bureaus will tend to become so enmeshed in red tape and programs as to be lifeless and ineffective. Already we have so many offices, so many paper organizations, that we find ourselves in the average Church with a burden too grevious to bear.

Our Church is a military organization in origin. The itinerant minister is an officer in the army of God, subject to orders. Our churchmen soldiers obligated to follow. Under such organization, led by consecrated leaders, we have marched as a Christian army flaming with zeal for God to accomplish great things. Our forces have been mobile, subject to direction as the needs of the time demanded. Waste places in the vineyard have been cultivated. The sick and the poor distressed have been visited and raised up, the gospel has been preached to them.

We fear for our Church a loss of this mobility of action in the midst of a moving and changing world. Already we hear the whisper that other branches of God's forces—more individualistic in their view point, more mobile, perhaps, in Church organization—are moving in and occupying our heritage.

We are not alarmists; we are not iconoclasts. We are laymen, loving our Church, working as we see it for its advancement and desirous of seeing it go forward. We have spoken as we see the matters, and we submit this report for your prayerful consideration and action.

The Committee has nominated C. O. Halland as Conference Lay Leader and requests that he be elected as such.

C. A. BARNETT

REPORT No. 2—CONFERENCE BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

We deplore the continued existence of the evils of the liquor traffic. We consider this one of the most serious problems confronting the church and one which is threatening the moral fiber of our nation. We recommend that scientific instruction be taught in our schools in accordance with the laws of our state.

We earnestly urge our people to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors, and, by example and precept, help to crystalize public sentiment against this traffic in the hope its sale can be prohibited by prohibition.

We consider the gambling spirit which is prevalent in our nation, not only among the adults of both sexes but also among the children of tender age, to be another of our serious problems, and we urge our people to fight this evil which is undermining the morals of our youth especially.

All gambling, and especially gambling with mechanical devices of various and sundry kinds, should be prohibited by law, and, in cases where there is no statutory law, one should be enacted. Our people are urged to oppose gambling in all of its forms and call upon our constituted authorities to suppress it, and we further urge our people to stand behind these authorities in doing so.

REPORT No. 2—BOARD OF MISSIONS

The Church at large has endorsed the voluntary principle in accepting askings; those responsible for raising the funds should bear in mind: There is a tendency to lay emphasis on the percentage paid rather than the amount of cash received. It is possible for a Church to pay a large per cent of its accepted quota and at the same time less cash than was paid under the old plan. We urge every Church that can possibly do so accept the full amount of Benevolent askings, and that the churches that find it impossible to do this make their acceptance as liberal as is humanly possible. We feel that it is absolutely imperative that the churches that can possibly do so should increase their Benevolent acceptances.

We heartily endorse the Missionary and Evangelistic program of the General Board of Missions. The District Missionary Institute is our leading agency of Missionary cultivation. In the Institute we have not permitted other things to crowd out the primary emphasis on Missions and Evangelism. The Conference Board of Missions and the Conference Board of Christian Education will cooperate in making these Institutes a success.

The dates for our Missionary Institutes are as follows:

District	Place	Time
Lake Charles	De Ridder	Jan. 24, 10 a. m.
Lake Charles	Lake Charles	Jan. 24, 7:30 p. m.
Lake Charles	Lafayette	Jan. 25, 10 a. m.

Shreveport	Shreveport	Jan. 30, 10 a. m.

Monroe	Monroe	Feb. 1, 10 a. m.
Alexandria	Alexandria	Feb. 2, 10 a. m.
Alexandria	Bunkie	Feb. 2, 7:30 p. m.

We urge that the World Outlook, The Upper Room and the Missionary study book, these three great periodicals, be given a prominent place on the program of these Institutes.

We call attention to the General Missionary Council to be held in San Antonio, Texas, January 3-6. We hope that it will be possible for every pastoral charge to have representatives at this great gathering.

We request Bishop Smith to continue J. G. Snelling as Superintendent of the Memorial Mercy Home-Hospital. The Board of Missions requests that the Annual Conference set aside the second Sunday in February, or as near thereto as possible, as Memorial Mercy Home-Hospital Day, and that an offering be taken in every church.

The Board of Missions also requests Bishop Smith to appoint W. H. Wallace, Jr., as Conference Missionary Secretary. We recommend Van Carter as Lay Evangelist. We heartily endorse the work being done by J. A. Alford in the Hospitals of New Orleans, and request Bishop Smith to re-appoint him as Conference Golden Cross Director, on salary, to be paid out of the funds of the Golden Cross.

We recognize the great need of our Rural Work, the French fields and the unchurched areas in our own Conference, and we hope that the presiding elders, preachers and laymen will work out some program whereby more of these unchurched people may be reached for Christ and the Church.

REPORT OF THE ORPHANAGE BOARD

We have had before us the report of the Board of Directors, also the first annual report of Rev. C. B. White, superintendent of the Orphanage. We are deeply gratified that this great institution has met the year with faith and courage and, under the leadership of Superintendent White and his splendid staff of co-workers, has carried on well.

We have noticed with satisfaction the reaction of many of our church men and women to the recent pictorial edition of the Orphanage Visitor. Many groups and individuals throughout the state have established the custom of providing clothing for children in the orphanage and at the present time only about forty are not so provided. This splendid action has brought to such persons a new contact with our children, which has been gratifying.

We recommend that the members of the board of directors, whose terms have expired, and who have been re-elected, be confirmed.

We also recommend that Easter Sunday and the second Sunday in October (designated as Harvest Day), be set aside as the special days upon which contributions to the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage shall be taken in every church throughout the Conference. We urge our people to more liberal giving.

We further recommend the appointment of Rev. R. W. Vaughan as Superintendent Emeritus and of Rev. C. B. White as Superintendent of the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage.

R. L. CLAYTON, President

O. L. TUCKER, Secretary

ANNUAL REPORT BOARD OF DIRECTORS LOUISIANA METHODIST ORPHANAGE

The institution is still prospering and it has continued so during the past year. The usual good health of the children has been maintained, and their general wellbeing kept upon an even keel.

The orphanage family has not grown materially during the past year for the reason that our housing capacity has been reached and our growth in numbers has been thus limited to refilling vacant places made by departures of our finished product. We have a large waiting list, but our progress in reducing it is necessarily very slow.

Our financial resources during the past year have not been unsatisfactory and cramped, although we could have been made more comfortable by a more generous supply. We owe no debts and are able to meet our obligations as they come up; yet we would feel more certain of our goal with stronger financial backing. We feel that our work in behalf of the State in the improvement of its oncoming citizenship merits a broader financial liberality than we have yet received.

Notwithstanding the administration of the institution the past year has been in the hands of a new Superintendent, there has been no interruption of its orderly ongoing. The new Superintendent is rendering satisfactory service, and the future of his work is promising. The Board directs me to request the Annual Conference and the Presiding Bishop to appoint the new Superintendent—Rev. C. B. White—as Superintendent for the incoming year, and also to appoint Rev. R. W. Vaughan as Superintendent Emeritus, of the Louisana Methodist Orphanage. The Annual Conference is also requested to set aside Easter Sunday and the second Sunday of October, 1939, as harvest days for the Methodist churches of the Conference to raise funds for the maintenance of the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage for the incoming Conference year, A. D. 1939.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE LOUISIANA METHODIST ORPHANAGE

From October 1, 1937, to October 1, 1938

To the Hon. S. D. Pearce, President, and Members of the Board of Directors of the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage, in regular session, Tuesday, October 25, 1938.

This is my first Annual Report as Superintendent of our Orphanage, and covers the period of our fiscal year, from October 1, 1937, to October 1, 1938.

This has been a good year. The children have been in good health as a rule. Several were operated on during the summer, and one little girl had to undergo an emergency operation for ruptured appendix. The spirit among our children is good, and they enter into their work and school activities with heart and enthusiasm. They are progressing nicely in their school work.

We have had 195 children in the home during the year; 25 children have left and 28 have been admitted. We have 169 at present. We have 10 students attending college, 48 in high school, 15 attending Eastland Grammar School, and 89 in our Orphanage School. Seven are too young to attend school. We had two College graduates during the year and five High School graduates.

This has been a splendid year agriculturally. At least our crops were abundant during the spring and summer. The fall drouth has greatly reduced our sugar cane and other late crops. Our fall gardening will be a complete failure if the drouth is not broken soon. However, during the spring and summer we did quite a bit of canning. The corn and other feed crops have been fine, but not enough to furnish our needs. The sweet potato crop has been gathered, which amounts to about 400 bushels. We have a large herd of hogs to produce our winter meats, and our dairy cattle are producing an abundant supply of milk and butter.

A number of minor repairs have been made during the year. three boys' cottages have been painted. A new boiler has been installed for our laundry and main building, and a number of repairs made in that connection. It seems now that we must have a new washing machine for our laundry, which will cost several hundred dollars. A new roof must be placed on the laundry and boiler room at an early date. Much repair work is needed. We need several thousand dollars in order to place our buildings in first-class condition.

Many appealing cases have come before us during the year, but we have been able to receive only a few. We are crowded at present. It is hard to turn away homeless and needy children. It is a pity we do not have room and means for caring for more.

We are trying hard to train our children according to the principles of Christian living and good citizenship. We have prayer meeting with them three nights each week. We plan clean entertainments and socials, and select good shows for them to see occasionally.

A little over two-thirds of our children are being clothed by individuals, Woman's Missionary Societies and Sunday School classes. This is a great help.

Our financial condition is shown in the following statement:

Mr. Holland submitted the following statement of the attitude of the trustees and it went to record:

ATTITUDE OF TRUSTEES

The Adjourned Session of the Louisiana Annual Conference, Alexandria, Louisiana.

Gentlemen:

Recognizing that there is some question in the minds of the members of the Conference relative to its jurisdiction over Centenary College, the Board of Trustees will proceed according to law with the necessary amendments to the College Charter to bring about the desired control of the College by the Conference if it cannot be found that this has already been provided for by previous amendments.

The foregoing is a statement of atttiude on the part of the undersigned members of the Board of Trustees.

Resolution Concerning Charter—Upon motion of C. O. Holland, it was resolved that the trustees of Centenary College be authorized to proceed with amendments to the charter of the said institution—in consultation with Dr. Briscoe Carter and in harmony with recommendations of Dr. W. M. Alexander of the General Board of Christian Education.

Bond Indebtedness—Discussion W. W. Holmes, president of the Board of Christian Education, spoke concerning the bond indebtedness. T. L. James then discussed the plan he had proposed to retire the indebtedness. D. B. Raulins, secretary of the Board of Christian Education, read resolutions relative to a campaign to carry out the plan of Mr. James. Mr. James then invited questions and discussion. The following spoke: J. Cude Rousseaux, B. C. Taylor, R. R. Branton, James E. Selfe, Elmer C. Gunn, Louis Hoffpauir, H. L. Johns, C. K. Smith, W. B. Clarke, H. W. Rickey, N. E. Joyner, Mrs. G. W. Pomeroy, H. M. Johnson, W. B. Hollingsworth, V. L. Caldwell, J. G. Snelling, Pierce Cline, W. L. Doss, Jr. Upon request of A. M. Wynne, the Resolutions were again read—by the Secretary, that all might clearly understand them. Bishop Dobbs stated that the banks would cancel $61,000 of the bond indebtedness and interest of approximately $2000, if Conference should carry out the plan of Mr. James, and that a group of unnamed persons would give $2000 or more toward the current indebtedness of Centenary College.

Resolutions Adopted After a resolution, presented by N. E. Joyner, expressing appreciation of the gift of Mr. Hayne of a gymnasium to Centenary College, had been adopted, the motion of Louis Hoffpauir that the vote on the Resolutions presented by D. B. Raulins be taken by standing prevailed; the vote was: Ayes, 130; Nays, none, and the Resolutions were unanimously adopted as follows:

RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, Centenary College Endowment Fund has agreed to purchase $56,000.00 additional bonds, making their total $150,000.00, provided the balance of the Bond Issue is retired and under certain other conditions, and

WHEREAS, Mr. T. L. James has devised a plan for the retirement and refunding of said Bond Issue and for raising funds for the erection of a building on Centenary College Campus;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Louisiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, that a campaign for the raising of funds for these purposes be approved, said campaign to be under the direction of the Board of Christian Education.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all funds raised by this campaign shall be deposited with the Board of Christian Education of this Conference, and that said Board shall apply sufficient funds first raised to the retirement of said Bond Issue, except the $150,000.00 to be owned by Centenary College Endowment Fund, and that all excess funds shall be used in the building program contemplated for the College on the campus of Centenary College; but the Board of Christian Education is hereby directed, that should they be unable to retire all of the Educational Bond Issue except the $150,000.00 to be held by Centenary College Endowment Fund as herein provided, to return all monies collected on this campaign to the donors.

MEMOIR

MRS. F. B. HILL

Miss Louise Payne was born in Devonshire, England, July 30, 1876. She was trained, and at an early age confirmed, in the Church of England, and was a member of that communion until her marriage to Rev. F. B. Hill on April 16, 1916.

She took training as a nurse in a London hospital and later went to Canada when she only twenty years of age, and worked in a hospital of that country for some years. From Canada she returned to England. At the outbreak of the World War she came to America and served at her profession in a New York hospital. From there she was transferred in the government service to California. She served for awhile in the Presbyterian Hospital in New Orleans and later she went to Baton Rouge and served as superintendent of nurses in the Baton Rouge General Hospital.

It was while she was in Baton Rouge that she was married to Rev. Frank B. Hill, then pastor at Logansport. After her marriage she served with Brother Hill at Logansport, Merryville, Jeanerette, Lecompte, Ponchatoula, Lake Arthur, McDonoghville, and Bossier City, where Brother Hill died suddenly. From Bossier City Mrs. Hill removed to Ponchatoula, where she remained until her death on December 9, 1937. While in Ponchatoula she was an active worker in the church school, Woman's Missionary Society, in which she served as president, in choir work, and in every kind of church activity for women.

In the last few years she suffered great illness and want and the Ponchatoula church ministered to her as she had done to the church in her health and strength. She rests from her labors and her works do follow her.
